People who contact angels (or a spirit guide) are actually contacting demons. Demons can and do possess unbelievers but they're not given the authority to possess believers. The reason is obvious: the moment of regeneration the Holy Spirit takes up residence in the believer - and He never leaves.

Angels, Demons & Spiritual Warfare - Berean Research
Principalities and powers are not demons, they are fallen angels. Fallen angels have a much greater level of authority than demons. The Holy Spirit says through Paul, " For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:12 NKJV).

Angels and Demons: What About Paul's Principalities and Powers? The fact that Greek daimon or daimonion is used to describe the fallen gods of the nations helps us to discern where Paul's theology of the powers of darkness comes from. Paul rarely uses Greek daimon or daimonion when speaking of hostile powers of spiritual evil. Instead he employs a range of terms that all have one thing in common—they are terms used of geographical dominion.
